The Joint State Government Commission is the primary and central non-partisan, bicameral research agency for the General Assembly of Pennsylvania. The studies conducted by the Commission are authorized by statute or by a simple or joint resolution. The Commission provides in-depth research on a variety of topics, crafts recommendations to improve public policy and statutory law. The completion of a study, or a particular aspect of an ongoing study, generally results in the publication of a report setting forth background material, policy recommendations, and proposed legislation. The report findings and recommendations are presented to the General Assembly. The release of any report by the Commission does not indicate that the General Assembly is obligated in any way to act upon any recommendations and proposed legislation. The Commission and its advisory committees serve in an advisory role only, to provide the General Assembly with thoughtful, considered suggestions for ways to address the topic under consideration.
